Dear JOHN DOE:

On February 17, 2009, President Obama signed into law, “American Recovery and Reinvestment Act,” Public Law 111-5, which provides a one-time payment of $250 to individuals who receive Social Security, Supplemental Security Income, Railroad Retirement and Veterans’ Compensation and Pension benefit payments.

The law requires the U.S. Department of Treasury’s Financial Management Service (FMS) to offset (or reduce) these payments to collect delinquent debts owed to state or federal government agencies, including delinquent child support debts. As required, we offset all or part of your one-time payment to apply to one or more delinquent debts you owe. Information about the offset and the government agency (or agencies) collecting your debt(s) is as follows:

We will forward the money taken from your payment to the agency (or agencies) listed above. In the case of state agencies, the agency may not apply the funds to your debt balance for several weeks due to additional administrative processing. If you call the agency, please have this notice available, because the information will allow the agency to assist you in the most efficient manner.
