NOTICE OF TITLE IV-D CHILD SUPPORT CASE CLOSURE

Dear Mr. Doe:

Your child support case under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act has been identified for possible closure because the non-custodial parent is deceased. Your Title IV-D child support case will close 60 days from the date of this notice.

This letter also serves as your notice that the Friend of the Court case(s) may also close at a later date. The Friend of the Court may also destroy their files as authorized by state policy.

You do not need to contact us unless:

- You can provide more information that could help us with your child support case; or
- You believe you have received this notice in error.

If you have more information, or there has been an error, please call us at the phone number above within 60 days of this notice.

This notice does not affect any other child support cases you may have. It also does not change any court orders or payments you may be paying or receiving on other child support cases.

If you get new information after your Title IV-D child support and related Friend of the Court case(s) are closed, you may reapply for child support services at www.michigan.gov/michildsupport.
