

Information About Your Child Support Case

October 1, 2024

Dear Jane Jean Doe,

This letter is about your child support case for the following child(ren):

Amy Marie Doe
Nicole Middle Doe
Ellen Middle Doe
Shari Middle Doe

Sheila Middle Doe
Jennifer Middle Doe
Tamara Middle Doe

We learned you have either stopped getting public assistance or you are only receiving Food Assistance Program (FAP) and/or Child Development and Care (CDC) assistance. If this is wrong, please contact a Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS) Eligibility Specialist. Because of this change, you are no longer required to receive child support services through the IV-D child support program.

You can choose to keep or stop child support services.

It's easy to keep getting child support services – you don't have to do anything. Your services will continue until you tell us you don't want them anymore.

Office of Child Support

To stop getting child support services, call our office at 866-540-0008. If you stop your child support services, you can start them again at any time by calling us. If you already have a court order, stopping child support services will not close your child support order. Payments will keep being collected and sent to you.
